

SUPER STONE

DURABLE | LIGHTWEIGHT

Super stone board is strong and flexible composed of cement, stone powder, refined ores and reinforced cellulose fiber as the main materials. It is made using an autoclaved process under high temperature and very high pressure which generates a light weight, durable and smooth - faced boards for various application for exterior and interior decoration as well as for use in the furniture industry. It can be used as an external facade or internal decorative sheet, fascia on commercial buildings requiring a durable, low-maintenance and impact resistant system, and an excellent polished surface look. It's suitable for either full wrap panel or composite designs.

BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- Weather resistant
- Immune to water damage
- Fire resistant
- Provides sound insulation
- Shatter resistant
- Low shrinkage
- Flexible
- High degree of workability
- Termite resistant
- 100% non-asbestos and environmental friendly building product.